

NOTIONS : DEFINITIONS

I. Myths and Heroes

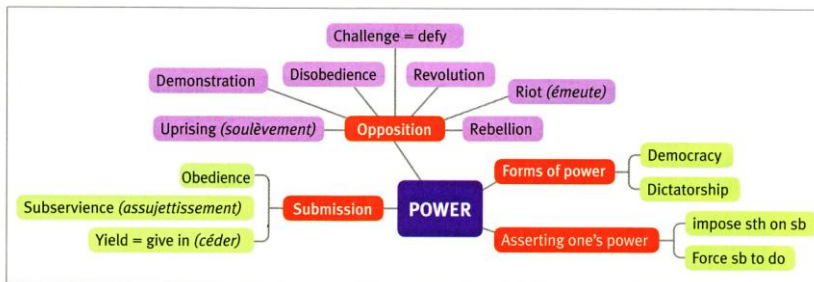

MYTH	HERO
1. an ancient story about gods, heroes and magic 2. a. popular belief or tradition embodying the ideals and institutions of a society b. an unfounded or false notion 3. a theme or character type embodying an idea	1. a. a mythological or legendary figure often endowed with great strength or ability b. a person admired for his/her achievements, noble qualities and great courage 2. the main character in a literary or dramatic work, an event, period, or movement 3. an object of extreme admiration and devotion: icon/role model

II. Places and Forms of Power

POWER:

- the ability or official capacity to exercise control, authority (the State, the government, political organization)
- strength or force exerted or capable of being exerted; might (puissance)
- a person, group, or nation having great influence or control over others

III. The idea of progress

PROGRESS:

- forward movement • advance • development
- gradual betterment; especially: the progressive development of humankind

Advantages	Progress	Drawbacks
cure diseases...	Scientific progress	cross boundaries • ethical problems...
upgrade education...	Social progress
enable sb to do sth...	Technical progress	dehumanize • cut off from the real world...

IV. Spaces and exchanges

EXCHANGE/FLOW

- a continuous output (production)
- a continuous movement or circulation. All types of exchanges: people, trade, media, etc.
- a general movement or tendency

